Tournament Notes:

1. Event: Refer to Table 1 for events, ratings, prize, and others.
2. Format: top four teams from Group RR followed by single elimination to determine 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place. Each contest consists of two singles, one doubles, followed, if necessary, one or two singles until one team wins three matches. A match is played best of 3 of 5 games. For each game, the first player to reach 11 points wins the game with a min-2-point margin. A team can have 3 to 5 players. Each player can play up to two singles or one singles and one doubles. No change is allowed in players after the registration deadline.
3. Players participating in Advance and Open events must have a USATT rating and ID. The higher USATT Tournament or League rating by 11/12/22 will be used. Players must use the same name associated with USATT membership. USATT IDs/ratings are not required for players to play in other five events.
4. Between 8am-9am on 11/19, players check in, sign a waiver form, and warm up. Events will start at 9 am sharp. Any team showing up 15 minutes after the match starts will be defaulted for the match.
5. Tournament uses Nittaku 3 star premium 40+ white balls.
6. This is not a USATT sanctioned event. Tournament results will not affect players' USATT ratings.
7. Each team must designate a captain. The captain will be responsible for the team registration, paying the fees, and disseminating the tournament information as informed by the organization committee.
8. The organization committee reserves discretionary rights for all tournament related matters.
